

Ice Dragon Scoring Rubric: General Documentation

QUALITY	9-10 A piece at this level	7-8 A piece at this level	5-6 A piece at this level	3-4 A piece at this level	2-1 A piece at this level
Documentation: the extent to which the entrant provides written material that explains what they were trying to produce, the materials used, and the processes followed, as well as appropriate historical background and source(s) for the entry	---is documented in depth, with complete descriptions/pictures of historical details, exemplar (if any), archeological evidence, construction techniques, materials used, interpretation of the documentation            ---Availability of material or materials used            ---extensively describes reasons for changes &amp; all problems encountered, including solutions            ---Usage of item in period            ---Regional/geographical/time period of item where appropriate. What the item is used for and for what purpose. Status/station of an owner of item, where applicable            ---has an annotated bibliography referencing a wide variety of sources and detailed diary of the item in construction	-- is documented with a picture or description of exemplars, materials used in period and how manufactured, construction techniques            --Availability of materials            ---has a detailed diary of the item in construction	-- documents the item, the time period, the sources used to construct the item, the materials used, the differences from the period piece and possible problems encountered            -- contains a simple bibliography	-- documents the time period, materials used            -- contains a simple bibliography	-- documents what the entry is